

SPB ALJ Peremptory Strike List

SPB Case No: _____

Each party scheduled to appear at an evidentiary, CHP arbitration, or investigatory hearing before a State Personnel Board (SPB) Administrative law Judge (ALJ), will have the choice of striking one ALJ from the list below. This strike of an ALJ will prevent that particular judge from conducting the evidentiary hearing during which evidence will be taken regarding this case. If you strike more than one name, only the first strike, nearest the top of the list, will be honored. In addition to noting which judge is to be struck, the declaration below must be fully executed or the filing will be considered incomplete and will not be accepted. Please review California Code of Regulations, section 56.2, for more information.

To strike an ALJ, this form must be completed and filed with the SPB Calendaring Unit, no later than 5:00 p.m., twenty (20) calendar days from the date on the initial acknowledgement letter issued by SPB. Filing is preferred by electronic mail to appeals@spb.ca.gov. You may also hand deliver this form to the SPB Appeals Division at 801 Capitol Mall in Sacramento.
